Housing Deposit Agreement Gateway Oslo, Norway Fall 2014

The housing organization, Anker or SiO which provides housing for the Gateway Oslo, Norway Program at Bjorknes College, requires a minimum $1,000* damage/reservation deposit for housing. The Wang Center for Global Education will pay the deposit on behalf of the student. The deposit is non-refundable if the housing reservation is cancelled due to a student withdrawing from the program. Students who withdraw from the Oslo, Norway Program at Bjorknes College will be responsible for reimbursing the Wang Center for the damage deposit. Anker/SiO will inspect the housing at the end of the program for damages and level of cleanliness. Cost to repair any damages or cleaning will be deducted from the damage deposit. Students will be responsible for reimbursing the Wang Center for any damage/cleaning costs to the housing.

*The deposit amount is determined by the housing selected. The exact amount will accompany your application for housing for future reference.

I, _____ have read the information about the damage/reservation deposit and understand that I am responsible for reimbursing the Wang Center for any fees related to damage or the loss of the deposit.
